

Collaborative Temporary Exhibition by
Graduate School of Life Science and The Tohoku University Museum

Re-Discovering our bats in Japan and Cuba

Oct. 1st (Tue) ~
Nov. 24th (Sun), 2019

Open: 10:00 - 16:00

Admission:

Adults 150 yen

Children age 6-15 80yen

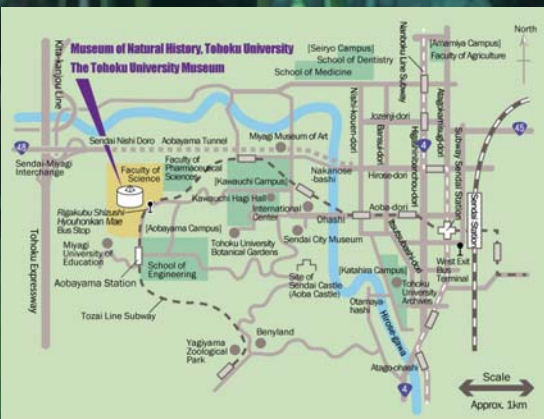

Tohoku University's ID holders are admitted free. DOKODEMO passport and similar passport holders (elementary & junior high school students who live in Sendai City and Miyagi Prefecture) are admitted free.

CLOSED DAYS: Every Monday (Tuesday when a national holiday falls on Monday)

Venue:

Temporary Exhibition Space on 2F in
The Tohoku University Museum
(Museum of Natural History, Tohoku University)

Aoba 6-3, Aramaki, Aoba-ku, Sendai
TEL/FAX 022-795-6767
<http://www.museum.tohoku.ac.jp/>

Organizer : Graduate School of Life Science, The Tohoku University Museum
Cooperation: Sendai City Science Museum.

(admission for exhibition is needed)

Venue:
Experience space on 1F

Free Workshop Information!

Oct. 12th (Sat.)

Origami and crafts about bats!

Enjoy free activities to make various origami and crafts bats. It will take about 15 minutes.

13:00-16:00 (Entry deadline:15:40)

Instructor: Lida Sánchez Sánchez

Cooperation : Michinoku-hakubutsugakudan

Oct. 26th (Sat.)

Halloween decoration

Let's make Halloween decoration about bats!
It will take about 20 minutes.

13:00-16:00 (Entry deadline:15:40)

Instructor: Lida Sánchez Sánchez

Cooperation : Michinoku-hakubutsugakudan

